

We are hiring!

We are looking for highly driven and motivated individual to join our engineering team. This person should be able to work as a team or individually. The technician's responsibilities include repair, install, replace, and service different systems and equipment. Technicians are to work alongside other skilled workers and should be able to read instructions and communicate effectively.

Technician – Preventive Maintenance Responsibilities:

- Follow SOP per specification and execute good maintenance of support tools
- Maintain good housekeeping in the production floor / sub-fab / office and maintenance support areas
- Ensure and follow good safety practice and also safe custody of tools, equipment and other properties belonging to the module

Technician – Preventive Maintenance Work Details:

- Perform swing shift duties either Sun-Thu, 8:15 AM to 5:30 PM or Tues – Sat, 8:15 AM to 5:30 PM
- 5 day work week
- Employment Location: Woodlands

Technician – Preventive Maintenance Requirements:

- NITEC / Higher NITEC equivalent qualification.
- Fluency in English language (written & verbal).
- Able to perform basic Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Physically fit
- Able to work in cleanroom and wearing of all required PPE.
- Permanent: Safety glasses & plastic bump cap
- Able to work overtime when required
- Experience in a technical position is a bonus.
- Working experience in semiconductor industries is preferred.

Benefits:

- 13th month bonus, medical, mobile and transportation allowances.
- Medical insurance coverage.
- On job training provided.
- Supportive team members and management.
- Career progression available.
- Salary range: 1,800-2,700/monthly

Interested party do email at hr@wf-industrial.com / sales@wf-industrial.com